Pip and Posy

The Little Puddle

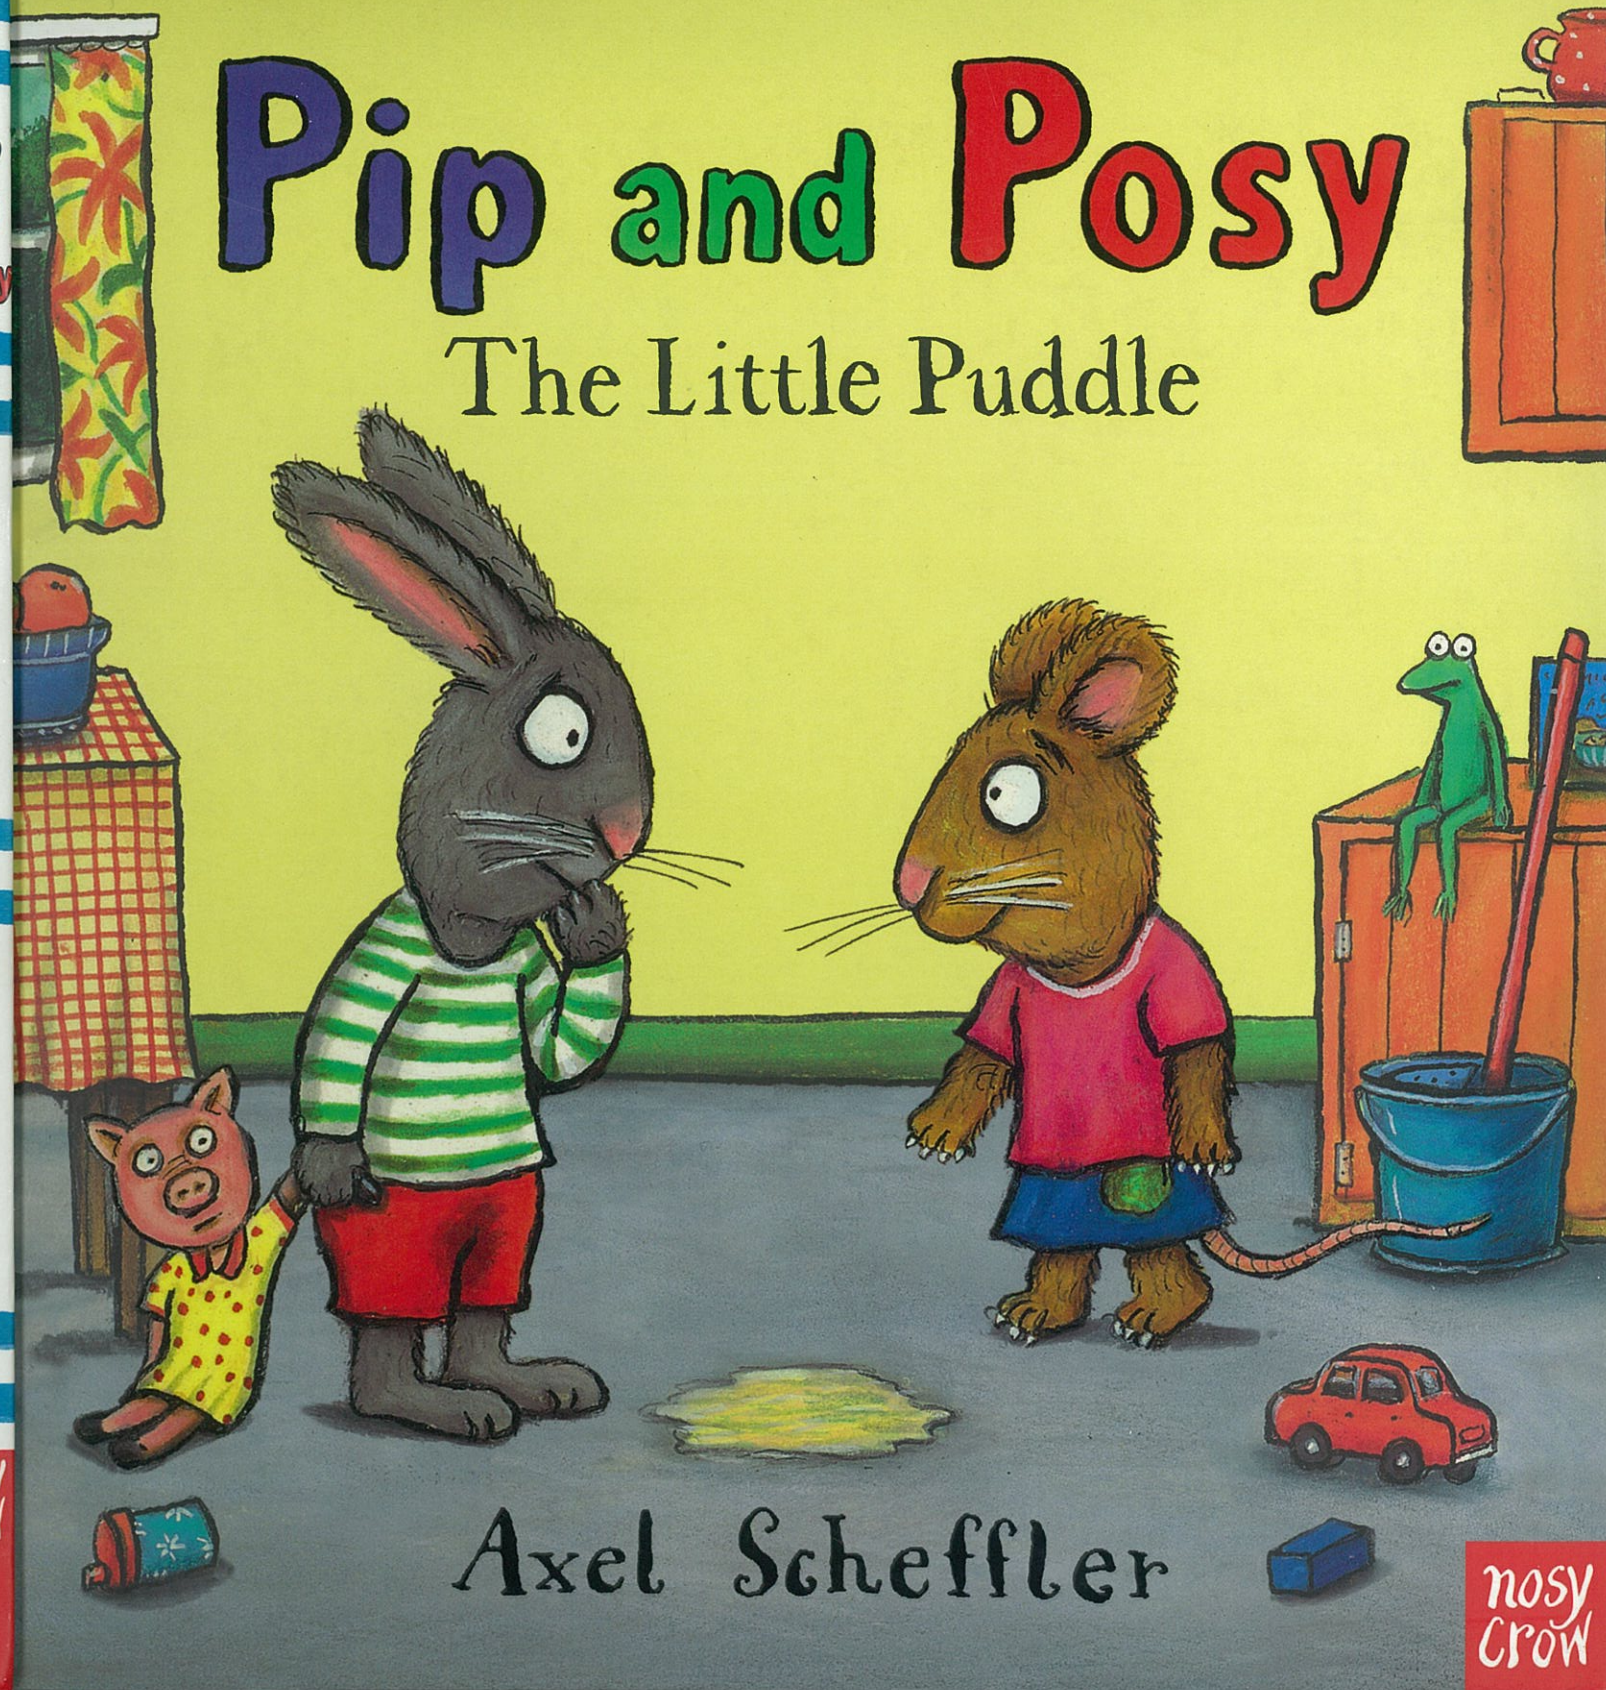

Axel Scheffler

Pip came to play at Posy's house.

He hung up his coat and took off his wellies.

“What shall we play?”
said Posy.

Next, they built a big train track and a town.

After that, Pip and Posy pretended to be lions.

And they had such fun roaring that Pip forgot he needed a wee.

Suddenly, there was a little puddle
on the floor.

Oh dear!

“Never mind, Pip,”
said Posy.

“Everyone has accidents
sometimes.”

Posy gave Pip some of her clothes to wear.

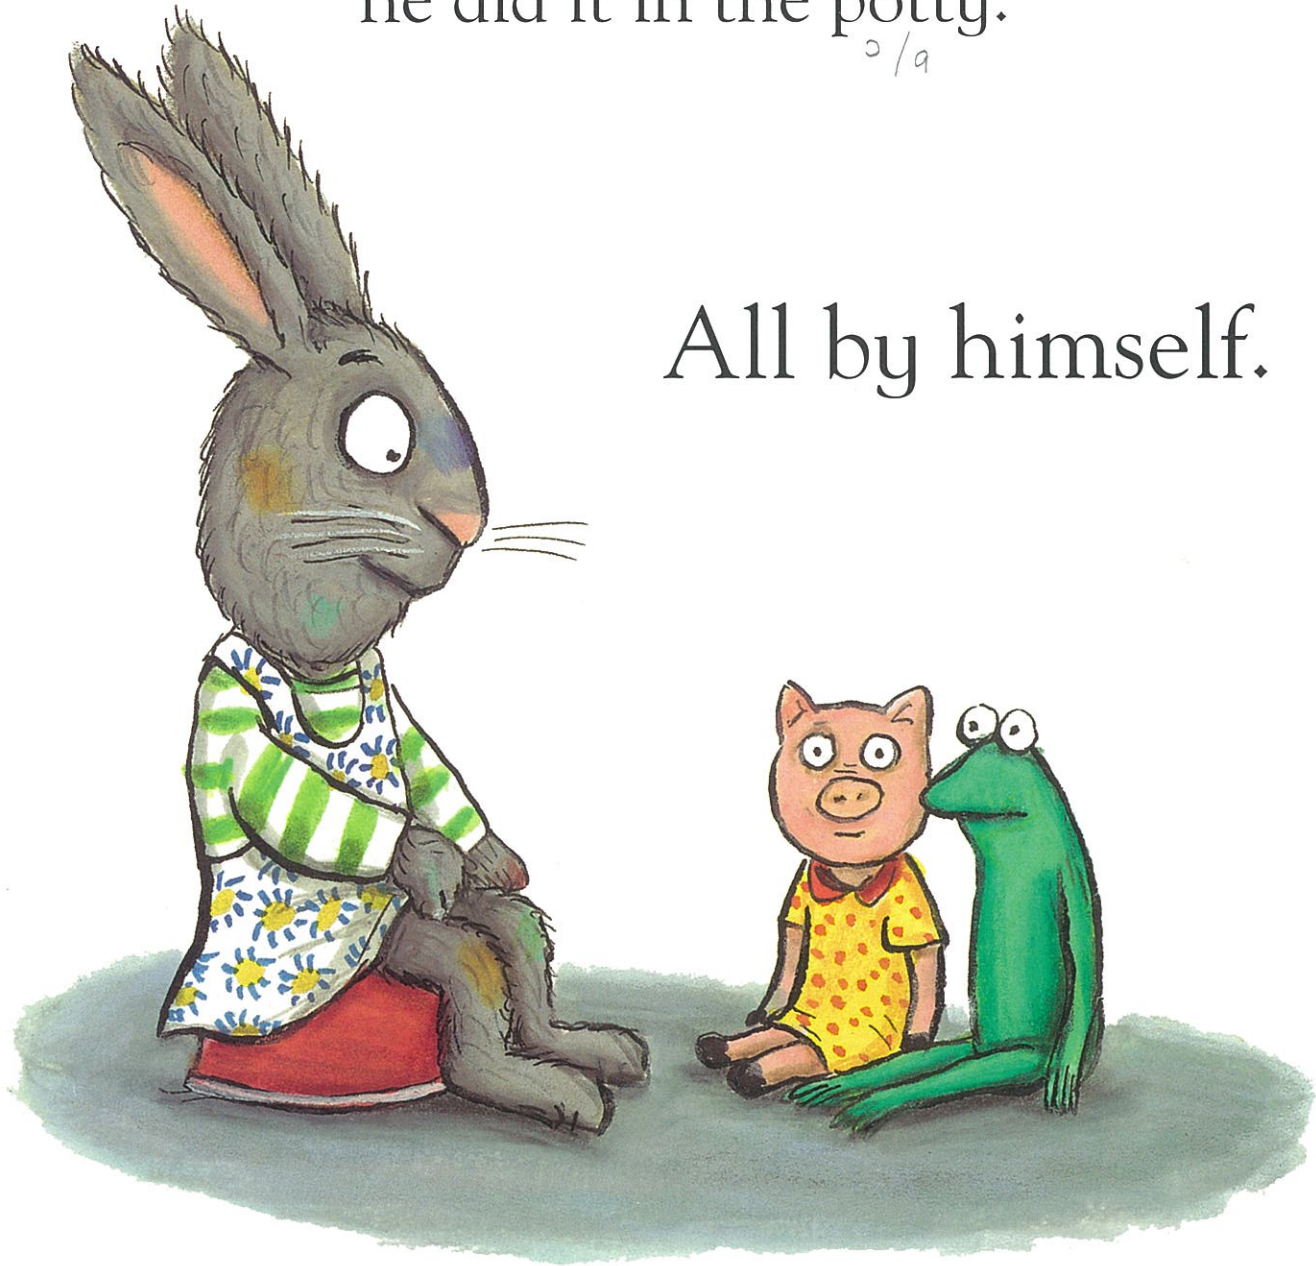

They spent the rest of the day
painting pictures.

And the next time Pip had to have a wee,
he did it in the potty.

All by himself.

Then it was time for a bath.
With lots of bubbles.

Hooray!
